ST

ims at Weston

New Publisher for RFK Book

9/4/67 The Washington Post

SEN. ROBERT F. KENNEDY
. . . author and friends

Putting the finishing touches on his fourth book, Author Robert Kennedy (D-N.Y.) expects to sign a contract this month with his new publishers, Doubleday & Co. It will make final his break with Harper & Row, publishers of William Manchester's "Death of a President." Harper & Row had published Sen. Kennedy's first three books, and had been arranging to publish the fourth until the row over the Manchester book.

Sen. Kennedy's new book will be called "To Build a Newer World," a series of essays updating and expanding on his speeches and public statements on current topics such as youth, the cities, Vietnam and Latin America. Publication is scheduled for late November.

Revealed